Building a Disciple Making Church
Our Legacy of Faith for Future Generations

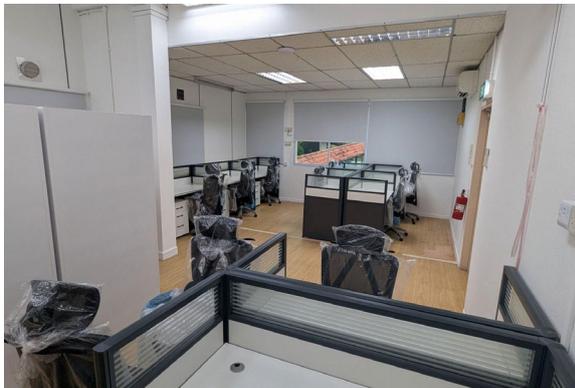

1. Changes to Worship Service

Changes to the main service will be happening in phases. The first phase begins today with our service bulletin reduced in length for easier readability on your devices, in preparation for moving it to online-only access. This has been made possible because our website has been revamped as of 1 May. Thank you to the IT Committee and our IT Asst Manager Nelson Wee for putting in the hard work to streamline and update the information on our website to enable this change.

In July, the next phase will kick-in where services will be modelled exactly to how it will be conducted at Suntec, introducing only electronic transfers for bulletins, our new worship format with electronic instruments. This allows us time to get used to new ways of doing things, to iron out any kinks, and to get feedback before our actual move.

2. Off-site Locations

YWCA Outram renovations are complete as of end-April.

From May to June, we will be working on the IT installations and beginning to move items over. Packing has begun across all ministries (and staff), with the bulk of it targeted to complete by end June.

We are also currently finalising our contract with Suntec.

We need volunteers to commit themselves to the AV set-up and tear-down roster. Please contact Pr Hui Ru (hrtan@orpc.org.sg).

3. Fundraising Recap and Updates

help us to offset potential unexpected expenses and reduce the draw-down effect on our reserves.

Sale of Holland Grove Property

We thank God for the sale of the Holland Grove property at $10 million. The buyer has exercised the option to purchase and the sale is confirmed. The funds raised by this go towards the overall funds (rather than towards funds raised by any one congregation)

We are grateful to the various discipleship groups (DGs) who have supported past fundraising events:

- 30 Mar Breakfast, Coffee, and Busking [Youth and YA DGs]
- 20 Apr Coffee@3 [Galatians, Orchard, Salt and Light]

Upcoming fundraising events:

- 6-7 June Children's Sleepover + Family Craft [Children's Ministry]

4. Technical Updates

As announced in September 2024, session has approved the appointment of Messrs Formwerkz Architects LLP (also known as the Multi-Disciplinary Team, MDT) to undertake the full design and management of the project, including making the necessary submissions to the relevant authorities for the A&A project.

Investigative Works

The Multi-Disciplinary Team (MDT) has completed a number of tests:

- Asbestos survey works

- Underground services detection works

Soil investigation works are currently ongoing and are on track to be completed by May 2025.

Government Information and Applications

Baseline information from the Singapore Land Authority was received in March.

Concurrently, pre-consultations with various government agencies are ongoing. In-principle approval has been obtained from LTA for the Pick-Up/Drop-Off (PUDO) access from Fort Canning Road. Application to URA for planning permission is also in progress.

Building and Construction

We are looking into the tender for the main contractor to conduct construction works for our building site. Pre-qualification for the main tender is ongoing. The main tender is expected to be awarded in 2025Q3.

Initial feedback has also been given to the appointed architects on the building plan.

RESOLUTION 1A TO AMEND ORPC CONSTITUTION TO INCLUDE NEW ARTICLE 2.4

Background

The Synod Theological Review and Response Committee and the Synod Constitution Committee have set out the biblical principles on gender, sexuality, singlehood and marriage. These principles were accepted at the 2016 Synod AGM and have been approved by the Commissioner of Charities and the Registry of Societies for incorporation in the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in Singapore and its Member Churches.

To ensure that all Member Churches are aligned on this issue, it was agreed at the Synod AGM that all Member Churches, including ORPC, will incorporate these provisions in their constitutions.

These provisions set out clearly ORPC's biblical position on sexuality, sexual conduct and marriage as well as protect the church by ensuring that all those in teaching and leadership functions uphold this biblical position as well.

None of these provisions negate our Christian response and pastoral care towards all those who struggle with LGBT tendencies. We had supported, and will continue to support, all those who come forward for help.

For any enquiries on support for those with LGBT tendencies, please approach the Pastoral Team.

RESOLUTION 1A TO AMEND ORPC CONSTITUTION BY INSERTING THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS AS ARTICLE 2.4 IN THE ORPC CONSTITUTION

The ORPC Constitution be amended by inserting the following provisions as Article 2.4 in the ORPC Constitution:

2.4 ORPC also declares as follows:

There has been increasing confusion and distortion of human sexuality in our society. As such, alternative lifestyles and sexual conduct that are contrary to Biblical teaching have been gradually gaining acceptance in our society and the Church must watch against the tolerance and acceptance of such practices within the Church. The Church, as instructed by Scriptures, uphold the following truths:

- (1) That humanity has been created in the image of God, as male and female, to the exclusion of all other (Genesis 1:26 - 28);
- (2) A substantive expression of the image of God is the marriage institution, defined clearly and uniquely as a lifelong monogamous and exclusive union between one man and one woman (Genesis 2:15-24);
- (3) That any form of sexual expression before and outside marriage is forbidden and is reckoned as sin (1 Corinthians 6:9-20);
- (4) That all Ministers and Preachers and those applying to be appointed as Ministers or Preachers must adhere to, practise and promote these biblical teachings on sexuality and marriage.
- (5) That Ministers and Preachers, together with their Session, shall ensure that all ministry leaders must adhere to, practise and promote these biblical teachings on sexuality, sexual conduct and marriage;
- (6) That Ministers and Preachers, together with their Session, shall exhort their congregants to adhere to and practise the biblical teaching on sexuality, sexual conduct and marriage as faithful witnesses of Christ.
- (7) That all forms of sexual misconduct dishonors God and should not be condone but be dealt with through Church discipline at its respective levels.

[Note: The amendment in Resolution 1A, is to incorporate and give effect to the recommendation by Synod with regards to the issue of sexuality.]

RESOLUTION 1B TO AMEND ORPC CONSTITUTION BY AMENDING THE HEADINGS IN ARTICLE 2, ARTICLE 7.4 AND ARTICLES 8, 8.1 OF THE ORPC CONSTITUTION

Article 2 to insert 'AND ADHERENCE TO BIBLICAL PRINCIPLES' to read as:

2. STATEMENT OF FAITH AND ADHERENCE TO BIBLICAL PRINCIPLES

Article 7.4 to insert "the Elders and Deacons Court also known as the" to read as:

The Office Bearers of ORPC – The Session and the Elders and Deacons Court also known as the Board of Management

Article 8 and Article 8.1 is consequentially amended to read as follows:

8. THE ELDERS AND DEACONS COURT also known as the BOARD OF MANAGEMENT

8.1 The Elders and Deacons Court shall function as the Board of Management and shall-

[Notes: Resolution 1B make amendments to headings to reflect the new articles. In respect of the amendment to the heading to Article 2, the amendment is to make reference to the insertion of the biblical principles as recommended by Synod. With respect to Articles 7.4, 8 and 8.1 the amendment makes reference to the Elders and Deacons Court in order to align it with the Synod's Model Constitution which continues to refer to the same. This is to continue to reflect our rich history in which the Elders and Deacons Court was always the name given to the Board of Management committee which included Elders and Deacons.]

RESOLUTION 1C TO REMOVE THE WORD “SERVING” IN ARTICLE 4.2 TO READ IN THE FOLLOWING MANNER:

ORPC shall appoint Representatives, who shall comprise the Senior Minister, ordained Ministers, Preachers, other Pastoral Staff and such number of ~~serv~~ing Elders and/or Deacons which ORPC is entitled to appoint as set out in the Constitution and by-laws of PCS, to represent it at the general meetings of the relevant Presbytery and the Synod.”

[Note: The amendment in Resolution 1C, is to align this Article to the Synod Constitution which has removed the word ‘serving’. This will also expand the pool of Elders to be appointed as ORPC Representatives at the general meetings of Synod/Presbytery.]

RESOLUTION 1D TO AMEND ORPC CONSTITUTION TO ALLOW FOR VIRTUAL MEETINGS AND ELECTRONIC VOTING

1. INTRODUCTION

During COVID 19, the Government passed the COVID-19 (Temporary Measures) Act to allow for virtual meetings so as to avoid physical or in-person meetings. When COVID-19 was under control, the Government repealed the Act with effect from 1 July 2023 and amended the Companies Act to allow companies to hold virtual meetings, but did not make similar amendments to the Charities Act or Societies Act. Hence, each charity has to amend its constitution to allow for virtual meetings.

The Synod amended its Constitution by defining the terms "meeting", "present" and "quorum" to mean being present in-person, or virtually, or a combination of in-person and virtual, and the term "vote" to include electronic votes. The mode of conducting a meeting will be decided by the organiser of the meeting. The amendment was passed by the delegates at the Synod AGM on 19 March 2024.

The Synod office has prepared templates based on the amendments made to its Constitution for member Churches to adopt in amending their Constitutions to allow for virtual meetings and electronic voting.

The Session has reviewed the template, received the prior approval of the Commissioner of Charities and has agreed to put forward the template amendments to members to approve. Hybrid or virtual meetings will help promote a spirit of unity and fellowship among congregants and build up church-life, including connecting with those who are homebound.

The Resolution to amend the Constitution is set out in Resolution 1D of this Appendix. Communicant Members are asked to approve this Resolution.

At ORPC, we affirm that the faithful preaching of the Word is a means of grace through which the Holy Spirit works in our hearts – calling, convicting, and conforming us to the image of Christ.

But the ministry of the Word does not end when the sermon does.

SoCM classes provide extended time and personal engagement to dig deeper into Scripture, explore the doctrines of our faith, wrestle with difficult topics, ask questions and connect theology to daily life.

THE PARABLES OF JESUS

A 7 lecture series organised by GPC Church Wide Bible Study

This seven-week course seeks primarily to help participants appreciate the meaning and impact of Jesus' parables when they were first told, and secondarily to apply them for present-day Christian living. To this end the background and the framework within which we are to understand Jesus' parables will be emphasized, especially the connection with the theme of the Kingdom of God and the fulfilment of the Old Testament. Their use as a powerful vehicle for dismantling long-held assumptions so that crucial matters may now be understood in the new light of God's revelation will also be featured. It is hoped that, through this course, participants may gain a better understanding of their faith and become illuminating and transforming parables for our own generation.

PLEDGE FORM

What is a pledge?

A pledge is a confidential, written promise to give money (whether a one-off sum or installments over a period of time) to the A&A project fund in the future. It is a commitment made in faith in accordance with the resources that God has given us. A pledge is not a legally binding contract, and can be reviewed and changed as circumstances evolve.

Why pledge?

Your pledge enables the A&A committee to plan its finances for the A&A project fund effectively, and to determine the financial commitment we are able to undertake for the entire rebuilding works ahead of time. We hope that through pledging, congregation members will build a culture of giving to the project based on our pre-committed goals.
