

CHRIST-CENTRED FAMILY & PARENTING

How do we build a home that truly reflects the gospel rather than bowing to the relentless pressure to perform? What if your family was never meant to be the source of your ultimate worth?

In this session, we explore Christian family and parenting with a gospel focus. A gospel-centred family is never treated as an ultimate idol for finding meaning in life - this frees us from the crushing pressure of achievement. Instead, the Christian home is rooted in (substitutionary) sacrifice, gospel identity, and balance. That means raising children requires laying down personal power and control, just as Christ did on the cross.

Christian parenting avoids extremes, combining traditional moral limits and structure with modern listening, strong affirmation, and freedom. For adult children, honouring parents means forgiving past hurts and breaking free from the need for their ultimate approval.

The session will also offer values and practices to help cultivate spiritual formation at home.

Join us as we discover what a truly Christ-centred family can look like.

Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. - 2 Corinthians 9:7

PLEDGE FORM

for the ORPC Building Alterations and Additions (A&A) Project Fund, launched in May 2024

What is a pledge?

A pledge is a confidential, written promise to give money (whether a one-off sum or installments over a period of time) to the A&A project fund in the future. It is a commitment made in faith in accordance with the resources that God has given us. A pledge is not a legally binding contract, and can be reviewed and changed as circumstances evolve.

Why pledge?

Your pledge enables the A&A committee to plan its finances for the A&A project fund effectively, and to determine the financial commitment we are able to undertake for the entire rebuilding works ahead of time. We hope that through pledging, congregation members will build a culture of giving to the project based on our pre-committed goals.

I/We pledge our support for the A&A Project Fund of Orchard Road Presbyterian Church (ORPC)
