Call to Worship

Hymn of Praise Come Praise and Glorify Our God

Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer (sung)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil;
for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
forever and ever. AMEN.

Hymn of Prayer O Breath of God (The Risen Christ)

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell,
the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the Life everlasting. AMEN.

Memento Mori

The practice of memento mori (Latin: remember we must die) has the profound potential to instil wisdom into our lives. While focusing on death may sound more morbid than meaningful, its contemplation allows us to appreciate the scarcity of the very time we're looking to make the most of in our fast-paced world.

Psalm 90:12 writes, "Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom." Reflecting on our mortality forces clarity onto us, that we may pause to consider where our lives are headed. It prevents us from running aimlessly on the treadmill of life.

I remember a simple exercise my missiology lecturer did with us during my days in theological college. You can follow the following steps on your own as you read this pastoral message to experience the sense of loss that death may bring. It helps if you withdraw to a quiet room to do this.

1. Observe some period of silence until your mind is still.
2. Prepare nine pieces of paper slips.
3. Think of nine things/persons you treasure the most in your life. They are those you cannot live without. Write them down separately on the paper slips.
4. Arrange them before you and look at what you have written. Of the nine things/persons, give up and crush four of the paper slips.
5. Of the five things/persons, narrow it down to three. Again, crush the rest of the paper slips.
6. Narrow it down to two. Crush the other paper slip.
7. Narrow it down to one. Crush the other paper slip.
8. Look at your last thing/person. Crush it too.

How do you feel? Physical death is inevitable; it is the ultimate loss because it takes away everything we hold. We can only stare at it helplessly the day death arrives to take all that we cannot keep. But take heart, for we are citizens not only of the earth but also of heaven (Heb. 13:14). Death is not our end because we have a living hope in the risen Christ!

The earthly life does not endure; the heavenly life does. But not all we do here is in vain because they may have eternal value. As martyred missionary Jim Elliot says, "He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep to gain what he cannot lose." Let us learn wisdom and "exchange" our transient earthly resources for enduring heavenly riches.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION (CE) EMPHASIS MONTH (OCTOBER)

This October is our CE emphasis month. The pulpit series with selected CE ministries-related publicity for this month will be aligned to the ORPC's disciple-making theme. Please prayerfully commit especially our family and next generation discipling ministry to the Lord throughout the month.

Youth Ministry

The Youth Ministry is an age-specific transition ministry, and it seeks to serve both churched and unchurched youths aged 13 to 19 years old. It is led by youths and supported by adult and young adult mentors who care deeply for the young by discipling them in God's word and by providing a significant adult presence in their lives.

Young Adult Ministry

Young adulthood is a time of many changes and many beginnings. Discipleship in young adulthood involves considering the life pathways ahead of us and how we can walk in faith as we embark upon our adult journeys.

In ORPC, we disciple young adults (20 – 30 years old) through Bible study, fellowship, prayer, and service. At our meetings we have heart-to-heart talks, we grapple with applying and living out the Word in the world, we encourage each other to live according to Christ's will in every way possible.

The Biblical Theology of the Gospel

The word “gospel” derives from the Anglo-Saxon term “godspell”, meaning “good news”. The Greek word euangelion (gospel) or its verbal cognate euangelizomai (evangelize) together occur more than 130 times in the NT. Whether used in a military, imperial, or religious sense, a gospel was always a message of good news. It is no wonder that the Chinese language describes good news as 福音 (Fúyīn).

The gospel that Jesus proclaimed was no different. It was a well-defined message of good news. Jesus the Messianic King had come to establish God’s kingdom on earth and forgive people of sin through his own substitutionary life, death, and resurrection, thereby qualifying them to inherit God’s kingdom if they believe.

In this lesson, we will clarify how the content of the gospel was developed through the biblical canon. It will provide an explanation of the gospel in an expansive sense, as well as in a more concise sense. Christians need to understand both in order to live out the life of discipleship and witness for Jesus.
