Call to Worship

Congregational Prayer & Response

Leader Joy to the world! Our Lord has come! He is here! He has accomplished the Gospel. He is a living testament that God keeps His promises.

Lord, like the Holy Family on that first Christmas night, many of us enter into the Christmas season with mixed emotions. And like that first Christmas night, we celebrate in the midst of a complicated, ever-changing world. Because You are good, even through Your birth You remind us that You are an unchangeable, faithful God.

Because of this, we come today in gratitude knowing that as far as the curse is found, your Light shines. As far as the curse is found, Your blessings search us out and cover us.

All We come today in humility stripped of pride, accepting You as our eternal Gift, given by God the Father.

Leader We come rejoicing as Your adopted children! Your earthly adoption brought You into a world of heartache, poverty, and death. Our heavenly adoption brings us kingdom riches and life.

All We come in faith knowing that in our own advent seasons of life, You are the Promise Keeper. You are the God who comes and stays and delivers.

Leader You are our Hope! Our Hope for things to come.

All Our Hope for unresolved situations today. Amen.

Joy to the World

Words by Isaac Watts. Music by George Frederick Handel. Used by permission. CCLI #341866.

Joy to the world the Lord is come
Let earth receive her King
Let every heart prepare Him room
And heav'n and nature sing
And heav'n and nature sing
And heav'n, and heav'n and nature sing

Joy to the earth the Saviour reigns
Let men their songs employ
While fields and floods
Rocks, hills, and plains
Repeat the sounding joy
Repeat the sounding joy
Repeat, repeat the sounding joy

No more let sins and sorrows grow
Nor thorns infest the ground
He comes to make His blessings flow
Far as the curse is found
Far as the curse is found
Far as, far as the curse is found

He rules the world with truth and grace
And makes the nations prove
The glories of His righteousness
And wonders of His love
And wonders of His love
And wonders, wonders of His love

Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer (sung)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil;
for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
forever and ever. AMEN.

Lighting of Fourth Advent Candle

*Congregation:

Teach us to love, O Lord. May we always remember to put you first as we follow Christ's footsteps, that we may know your love and show it in our lives. As we prepare for our celebration of Jesus' birth, also fill our hearts with love for the world, that all may know your love and the one whom you have sent, your Son, our Saviour. Amen.

Scripture Lesson

Luke 2:1-7

"And it came to pass in those days that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be registered. This census first took place while Quirinius was governing Syria. So all went to be registered, everyone to his own city.

Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, to be registered with Mary, his betrothed wife, who was with child.

So it was, that while they were there, the days were completed for her to be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling clothes, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn."

Congregational Prayer & Response

Leader

Lord, it is beyond our comprehension that our Royal Prince, our Holy Messiah would have no place to lay His head.

While we shake our heads in disapproval, we must also ask ourselves where we have not made room for You.

So today, Lord, we invite You into our homes the place where we are the most vulnerable and real. We invite You to see us as we are, with no pretense or show; to see the best and the worst of us.

All

We create room for You in our workplaces where tensions often run high, and people can be difficult.

Leader We invite You into our conflicts drawing on Your divine compassion, understanding, and wisdom to resolve situations that wound us.

All We create room for You in our finances so that You can guide us to people in need, precious souls beloved by You.

Leader And for those who struggle during the Christmas season, we invite You into our struggle, embracing You as our Prince of Peace, our Wonderful Counselor. May every heart prepare room for You in this season and throughout the year.

All Amen.

Away in a Manger

Stanzas 1, 2 Anonymous, Stanza 3 by John Thomas McFarland. Music by William Kirkpatrick and James Murray. Used by permission. CCLI #341866.

(Solo) Away in a manger
No crib for a bed
The little Lord Jesus
Lay down His sweet head
The stars in the bright sky
Looked down where He lay
The little Lord Jesus
Asleep on the hay

(All) Away in a manger
No crib for a bed
The little Lord Jesus
Lay down His sweet head
The stars in the bright sky
Looked down where He lay
The little Lord Jesus
Asleep on the hay

The cattle are lowing
The poor baby wakes
But little Lord Jesus
No crying He makes
I love You, Lord Jesus
Look down from the sky
And stay by my cradle
'Til morning is nigh

Be near me, Lord Jesus
I ask Thee to stay
Close by me forever
And love me, I pray
Bless all the dear children
In Thy tender care
And fit us for heaven
To live with Thee there

Congregational Prayer & Response

Leader To be invited to the very first Call to Worship,
To be summoned to the stable where the curse was reversed,
To have “A Request for the Honour of Your Presence”
from the King of the Nations,
How can we refuse?

All And so we come in answer to Your bidding.
We come with uplifted hearts and outstretched arms.
We come joining our voices with the angels.
We come with joyful songs and happy greetings.

Leader “All the earth bows down to You; they sing praise to You;
they sing praise to Your name.

All Come and see the works of God; how awesome are His deeds toward mankind!” (Psalm 66:4-5)

O Come, All Ye Faithful

Latin hymn, attr. to John Francis Wade, tr. Frederick Oakeley.
Used by permission. CCLI #341866.

O come all ye faithful
Joyful and triumphant
O come ye O come ye to Bethlehem
Come and behold Him Born the King of angels

(Refrain)

O come let us adore Him
O come let us adore Him
O come let us adore Him
Christ the Lord

Sing choirs of angels
Sing in exultation
Sing all ye citizens of heav'n above

Glory to God all glory in the highest
(Refrain)

Yea Lord we greet Thee
Born this happy morning
Jesus to Thee be all glory giv'n
Word of the Father now in flesh appearing
(Refrain)

Scripture Lesson

Matt. 11:28-29

God Rest Ye Merry, Gentlemen

Traditional English Carol. Used by permission. CCLI #341866.

(Men)

God rest ye merry gentlemen
Let nothing you dismay
Remember Christ our Saviour
Was born on Christmas Day
To save us all from Satan's pow'r
When we were gone astray
O tidings of comfort and joy
Comfort and joy
O tidings of comfort and joy

(Women)

From God our heav'nly Father
A blessed angel came
And unto certain shepherds
Brought tidings of the same
How that in Bethlehem
Was born the Son of God by name
O tidings of comfort and joy
Comfort and joy
O tidings of comfort and joy

(Choir only)

“Fear not then” said the angel
“Let nothing you affright
This day is born a Saviour of Virgin pure and bright
To free all those who trust in Him
From Satan's pow'r and might”
O tidings of comfort and joy

Comfort and joy
O tidings of comfort and joy

(All)
Now to the Lord sing praises
All you within this place,
And with true love and brotherhood
Each other now embrace
This holy tide of Christmas
Doth bring redeeming grace
O tidings of comfort and joy
Comfort and joy
O tidings of comfort and joy

Scripture Reading

Micah 5:2, 4-5a

But you, O Bethlehem Ephrathah, who are too little to be among the clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me, one who is to be ruler in Israel, whose coming forth is from of old, from ancient days...

And he shall stand and shepherd his flock in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God. And they shall dwell secure, for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth. And he shall be their peace.

Congregational Response & Prayer

Leader

Because our culture pushes us to look for the extraordinary in exaggerated situations, we are prone to miss miracles that happen in unlikely places. We might be tempted to manufacture glamour in efforts to see God's hand at work. Lord, remind us that throughout history, You have chosen the underdog, the unassuming to show Your greatest power.

All

Remind us that You can be found in the most unlikely of places.

Leader

Remind us that Your miracles and blessings cannot be summoned by wealth, power, or presentation.

All

In times when we lack confidence in our calling, remind us that you chose Mary, an unwed teen, to raise the Saviour of the world.

Leader In times when our current situation seems to disqualify us from Your blessings, remind us of Bethlehem, a tiny city with heavenly fame.

All In times when we feel “less-than” remind us that You are the Great I AM.
When we act justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with You, we are in partnership with the Almighty.

Leader That You would use us to accomplish the divine is an honour almost more than we can comprehend, but we are grateful!

All Let us be Your hands and feet, bringing miracles of hope and deliverance to people in darkness. AMEN.

O Little Town of Bethlehem

Words by Phillips Brooks. Music by Lewis H. Redner.
Used by permission. CCLI #341866.

O little town of Bethlehem
How still we see thee lie
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting light
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in Thee tonight
For Christ is born of Mary
And gathered all above
While mortals sleep the angels keep
Their watch of wond'ring love
O morning stars together
Proclaim the holy birth
And praises sing to God the king
And peace to all on earth

O holy Child of Bethlehem
Descend to us we pray
Cast out our sin and enter in
Be born in us today
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell
O come to us, abide with us
Our Lord Emmanuel

Scripture Reading Luke 2:8-18

Now there were in the same country shepherds living out in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. And behold, an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were greatly afraid.

Then the angel said to them. "Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which will be to all people. For there is born to you this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord. And this will be the sign to you: You will find a Babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying:" Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, goodwill toward men!"

So it was, when the angels had gone away from them into heaven, that the shepherds said to one another, "Let us now go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has come to pass, which the Lord has made known to us." And they came with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the Babe lying in a manger.

Now when they had seen Him, they made widely known the saying which was told them concerning this Child. And all those who heard it marvelled at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

Round yon virgin mother and child
Holy infant so tender and mild
Sleep in heavenly peace
Sleep in heavenly peace

Silent night holy night
Shepherds quake at the sight
Glories stream from heaven afar
Heavenly hosts sing alleluia
Christ the Saviour is born
Christ the Saviour is born

Silent night holy night
Son of God love's pure light
Radiant beams from Thy holy face
With the dawn of redeeming grace
Jesus Lord at Thy birth

*Congregational Response & Prayer

Leader Lord, as we exit this morning (evening), we celebrate your presence everywhere. When we see the Christmas lights blinking on the trees and on the houses, we will rejoice for You are the Light!

All When we feast on our Christmas meal and all the confectioneries, we will give thanks for You are the Bread of Life.

Leader As we leave with these carols in our hearts and on our lips, we will sing with the angels, in the car, in our homes, during the mundane tasks of life, making each moment sacred.

And so, we end today in the same way we began: Joy to the world! Our Lord has come!

All We receive You as our King!

Joyful Celebration

Today we celebrate our annual Lessons and Carols service and also the fourth Sunday of Advent—Love—for “God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life” (John 3:16). In Jesus, we have eternal life, hope, peace, joy and love. As we respond in worship, we do so with great joy as we remember that for the past two years we were not allowed to sing publicly.

We open our worship with the carol Joy to the World, the Lord is come! Indeed, joy has come. Jesus is our Joy. We remember the gift of Jesus, the blessings of forgiveness, his salvation and his promise to come again.

In the carol, Away in a Manger, we remember Christ's sacrifice and love for us, when “the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us” (John 1:14). Jesus was “born in a manger with no crib for a bed”. The final stanza urges us to respond with the writer asking Jesus “to be near us, to stay close to us, and to bring us to heaven when the time comes.”

“Let us go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass” (Luke 2:15) is the original title of the carol O Come All Ye Faithful. The invitation to come (to Bethlehem) places all worshippers both among the shepherds who rushed to see the Christ child, and in the long procession of the “faithful” that have journeyed to Bethlehem in their hearts for over 2,000 years.

God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen in the English of the day means “God keep you merry gentlemen”. The first stanza shows the reason for Christ's coming, “to save us all from Satan's power / when we were gone astray.” The second stanza points the location of Christ's birth—Bethlehem. The final stanza invites all to “sing praises” in response to the good news of Christ's birth and to embrace one another “with true love and brotherhood.”

O Little Town of Bethlehem was written by rector Phillips Brooks (1835-1893) and organist Louis H. Redner (1931-1908) for their Sunday School children at Holy Trinity Church. The first and second stanza narrated the story of birth of Jesus in Bethlehem and the final stanza invites the Holy Child, the Lord Emmanuel, to be born in our hearts.

The First Noel very likely began as a song that was passed along orally and sung in the streets outside of churches, since early Christian congregants participated little in the Catholic mass. The word ‘Noel’ comes from the Latin word for ‘news’. Thus, the song is about a crier, in this case, an angel, spreading the good news that Jesus Christ is born. The final stanza draws all humanity into the story—and with his blood humankind has bought—and extends the birth account to the story of salvation.

We end our worship service with the beloved carol Silent Night reminding us that Christ the Saviour is born.

Bible Readings & Prayer Points

Monday

Read Luke 2:21. What did Mary and Joseph name the child? What does this tell you about their faith in God?

Pray for those involved in the two ongoing camps (Sunday School and Youth). Pray for God to strengthen them as they serve, and for God to speak to those attending.

Tuesday

Read Luke 2:22-24. Why did Mary and Joseph bring the child up to Jerusalem? (See also Exod. 13:2 and Lev. 12:8.)

Give thanks for what God has done through Jesus Christ. Pray for the gospel to reach the hearts of many this Christmas season.

Wednesday

Read Luke 2:25-26. Who is Simeon, and what has he been waiting for?

Ask God to place a burden on our hearts for the tasks He has in store for us. Pray for faithfulness and perseverance as we serve in the coming year.

Thursday

Read Luke 2:27-32. What did Simeon say about the baby Jesus? What does this tell you about who Simeon has identified him to be through the Spirit?

Ask God to fill us with the Holy Spirit so that we may minister with His grace and love to each other and to the world around us.

Friday

Read Luke 2:33-35. What did Simeon prophesy about Jesus to Mary? Consider Jesus' life – is this accurate?

Pray for those who have been invited to come and hear the gospel this Sunday. Pray for their hearts to be open and ready to receive Christ.

Saturday

Read Luke 2:36-38. What change happened in the daily routine of Anna the prophetess? Why is this significant?

Pray for those who have invited friends to come and hear the gospel tomorrow. Pray for wisdom to know what to say and how to follow up, and pray for their lives to reflect the gospel.
