The Lord's Prayer (sung)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil;
for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
forever and ever. AMEN.

Discipleship Empowered by Knowing and Proclaiming the Gospel

The apostle Paul reminds us in Romans 1:16 that the Gospel is the power of God for salvation, for it reveals God's righteousness. The amazing news is this: the righteousness of God, miraculously by God's doing, becomes ours when we believe in Christ. How can this be?

Zechariah's song in Luke 1:68-69 reminds us that God has come to visit and redeem His people by raising a Son from the line of King David to save them. Jesus is the fulfilment of all God's promises to His people in the Old Testament. He is the King who has come to redeem us.

So when our Lord Jesus first came on the scene in Mark 1:14-15, He proclaimed, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel." The kingdom of God is here because Jesus has come.

The Gospel is the good news of God's Kingdom—God's reign through the death and resurrection of His Son, His appointed King, the Lord Jesus. Without the coming of Jesus to us and for us, God's reign will be terribly bad news because our sins will only invoke God's wrath.

But thanks be to God! 1 Peter 3:18 says, "Christ died for sins, once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God."

What then does this Gospel require of us?

As the Lord Jesus commands us in Mark 1:14, repent and believe in this Gospel. This is a call for us to dethrone ourselves and enthrone Christ as the true King in our lives and in our midst.

To enthrone Him certainly also entails proclaiming Him. We proclaim Him with our lives and words, wherever He places us.

In our little discussion during our recent God's Big Picture training, we drew up three simple lessons for how we can share Christ with someone. First, tell our story. Tell others how the Lord met us in the darkest valleys of our sins and miseries. Second, share from the posture of a fellow sinner in need of God's rescue. Third, share from the right motive. For in our fallenness, we can share the Gospel for wrong reasons, such as to seek personal gains or glory. Rather, let us share from our desire for others to know Christ and be saved for His glory.

May our discipleship be marked by faith and repentance, and may we rejoice in and proclaim the good news of God's King, who has come for us and will come again.

Bible Readings & Prayer Points

Monday

Read Luke 3:1-6. What is the significance of John's ministry? What does it imply about the coming Lord?

Thank God for our leaders in ORPC. Pray that they will lead the church well in a wise, godly, and self-sacrificial manner.

Tuesday

Read Luke 3:7-9. Why is John's warning so harsh?

Pray for smooth transitions across Sunday School, Youth Ministry, and Young Adult Ministry. Pray that our children will possess a living faith of their own.

Wednesday

Read Luke 3:10-14. What is John exhorting his listeners to do? Why (see also Luke 3:8)?

Praise God that he listens to our prayers. Pray that many will join us in tonight's Congregational Prayer Meeting and will be edified by our time together.

Thursday

Read Luke 3:15-17. What will the Lord do when he comes? Why is that significant?

Pray that in the year ahead we would live in anticipation of Jesus' soon return, when he comes to save his people and judge his enemies.

Friday

Read Luke 3:18-20. How is Herod's response contrasted the response John was looking for?

Pray for those around the world who are being persecuted for believing and proclaiming the gospel, that they will still steadfastly trust in Jesus.

Saturday

Read Luke 3:21-22. What is the significance of Jesus' baptism (see also Ps. 2:7; Isa. 42:1)?

Praise God that we have a King who is perfectly righteous, in whom God is well pleased. Pray that we would encourage each other in ORPC to live in obedience to him.

SoCM Adult Sunday Class 2023

Venue: The Chapel

Time: 10.45 am - 12 noon

Conducted by Rev. Dr. Clive Chin

What do even the angels long to understand?

1 Peter 1:12 tells us that the gospel announced to us are things which even the angels would like to understand.

The gospel - the good news - has turned the world upside down and has radically transformed lives. It has profound and continuing impact on the world and our ministry and daily Christian life. The gospel is a message that has been revealed by God that we are to believe, and proclaim to others. Yet many of us cannot see the overarching powerful message of the gospel when we read the Bible. Most of us cannot confidently articulate the gospel in a simple and coherent manner. Our 2023 SoCM Adult Sunday Classes will help us understand and appreciate the simplicity of the gospel as well as the breadth and depth of the good news; things that angels long to look into.

The Gospel: The Matter of First Importance

- 15 Jan The gospel narrative in big and small frames
- 5 Feb The gospel in the creation account and the fall of humankind
- 5 Mar The gospel in terms of the Abraham covenant
- 2 Apr The gospel in terms of the Messianic Kingdom of God
- 7 May The gospel according to Jesus Christ
- 2 July The gospel according to the apostle Paul
- 6 Aug The gospel in terms of the lordship of Christ and Christian discipleship
- 3 Sep The gospel in terms of Christian worldview and ethics
- 1 Oct The gospel in terms of the consummation of the present age
- 5 Nov The gospel in Reformed and Calvinistic perspectives

SoCM Adult Sunday Class

15 January 2023

10.45 am – 12 noon

Venue: The Chapel

Conducted by Rev. Dr. Clive Chin

The Gospel: The Doctrine of First Importance

As evangelical Christians, it is critical for us to understand the core or fundamental belief of Christian faith. The Apostle Paul explains the “gospel” as the doctrine by which the Corinthians were saved as “of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scripture...” (1 Cor 15:3). Thus, the gospel refers to the person and work of Jesus Christ as the fulfilment of OT messianic promises, and constitutes the main storyline of the entire Bible.

Our 2023 SoCM adult Sunday School class has three main learning objectives to support our initiative to build a disciple-making church. We seek to: (1) understand the “gospel” content in its multi-dimensional facets; (2) consider how the gospel can transform our lives, and (3) be trained to share the gospel with non-believers.

The first session is introductory in nature and will cover the “Biblical Gospel” in its concise and broader contexts.
