Call to Worship

Hymn of Praise & Adoration Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee

Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer (sung)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil;
for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
forever and ever. AMEN.

Hymn of Prayer

The Gift of Love

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell,
the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the Life everlasting. AMEN.

God's Grace is Enough

One of the images that has stayed with me in these past 3 years (nearly) of ministry in church is that of mountain climbing. Serving God through working in church has always reminded me of climbing up a steep, rocky mountain. And you know what? I've tried mountain climbing, albeit only on Kota Kinabalu, and I didn't like it. In my eyes, it's difficult, exhausting, cold, painful, and I don't get to see the scenery enough for it to be worth it just for its own sake. Similarly, working in church is not something I enjoy so much that I would do it for its own sake. Maybe it's not the done thing to hear a church worker say this – to say that if it were entirely up to me, I wouldn't be here doing this. It is the truth, however.

But do you know the difference between mountain climbing and working in church? When you climb a mountain, it's down to your own strength, training, perseverance, and motivation; it's entirely dependent on you. But when you are working in church, relying on yourself is not enough. In fact, relying on yourself more than God is a recipe for burnout. And it is at that point when your own strength gives out, in your weakness, that we find God's grace presenting itself as a miracle in front of us, God's strength giving us the courage to take another step somehow, and God's love overflowing even more for us to show His love to just one more person. God's grace is indeed made perfect in our weakness (2 Cor 12:9) and is enough to carry us through in what He has called us to do (Phil 4:13). Wherever God has called us, God will bring us through.

And God's grace means that He gives us encouragement and joys along the way He calls us to serve, wherever and however difficult it may be. The trudge up the grey stone slope may seem pointless and dreary, but God shows us beauty along the way. God sustains us enough to reach the next point of beauty ahead, giving us the next boost to continue. He knows what we need and when we need it, and He dispenses them so.

So don't lose heart, my friends and my spiritual family. Following Christ, serving Him where God wants us to serve (wherever it may be and whatever it may look like) is not easy by any means. But God's grace is enough and is more than enough. Look to Him, rely on Him, and He will carry you through.

O Breath of God (The Risen Christ) (v1, 2, 3 only)

Words and Music by Keith Getty & Phil Madeira. Used by permission.
CCLI #341866.

O breath of God, come fill this place;
Revive our hearts to know Your grace;
And from our slumber make us rise
That we may know the Risen Christ.

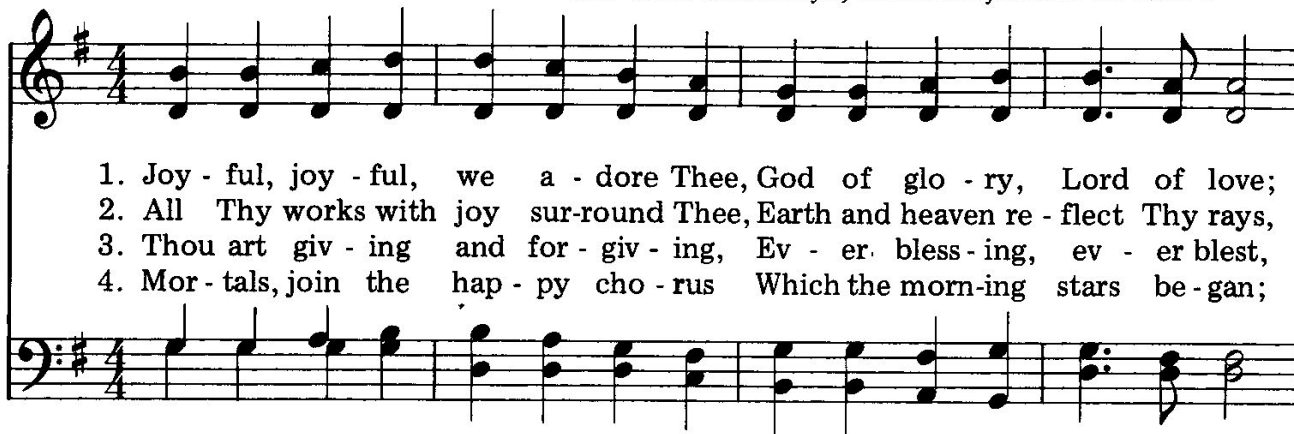

O word of God, so clear and true,
Renew our minds to trust in You;
And give to us the bread of life
That we may know the Risen Christ.

O love of God, so unrestrained,
Refresh our souls in Jesus' name.
Let us reflect Your sacrifice
That we may know the Risen Christ.

Knowledge is foundational to Discipleship

All Christians are called to grow in the knowledge of God as a means of growth in godliness.

The Gospel is a bold message to know, appreciate and proclaim. God has revealed Himself to us in a book; and He calls us to love Him with all our heart, soul and mind.

Why attend Adult Sunday Class

So what have you learnt from the Adult Sunday Classes?

Isn't listening to the sermon during Sunday worship service enough?

Preaching is central to the life of a church but it is not the only ministry of the Word that a church should regularly receive.

In the first three classes, we have learnt about the essential points of the Gospel; and the reasons why we can believe in a creator God.

We also discussed interesting issues, like what kind of god would ask Abraham to sacrifice Isaac; and how that episode recorded in Genesis can give us assurance of salvation.

Jesus sometimes preached to thousands. At times, he taught just the Twelve.

Teaching can devote more attention to a subject and delve into greater depths than when preaching to a whole congregation. Dialogue and questions are important features of teaching sessions.

The SoCM Adult Sunday Classes complement and supplement preaching during worship service to feed us the knowledge we need to grow in Godly living and faithful discipleship.
