Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name,

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil;
for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
forever and ever. AMEN.

Beautiful Savior (PM)

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth;
and in Jesus Christ his only son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell,
the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the Life everlasting. AMEN.

All Power Belongs to God

Many world leaders think they have control or power over others. When things do not go their way, they exert their power over others to get things to go their way. This power is often exerted in an abusive manner. Such leaders think they can control events and people with their power.

While Jesus was being tried, Pilate told Him that he had power over life and death: "Don't you realize I have power either to free you or to crucify you?" (John 19:10). Jesus could have bowed to pressure and gave in to him. Instead, Jesus responded by challenging Pilate's claim to power: "You would have no power over me if it were not given to you from above" (John 19:11). This was the truth that the Messiah wanted Pilate to know: True power comes from God.

The realisation that true power comes from God should humble us, even if we are in a position of power; a manager, a CEO, an employer, etc. We ought not to abuse our power over others. "True power comes from God" should be our dictum. We are vessels of God's power. How we use the power given to us shows the kind of belief that we have about God; Jesus is the Servant King.

Paul was very well aware of this truth and he urged his readers to emulate Jesus' humility. Despite Jesus "being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage" (Phil 2:6). On the contrary, He gave up His power, took "the very nature of a servant" and "humbled himself by becoming obedient to death" (Phil 2:7-8). Jesus, who had all power, gave it all up because of love.

Therefore, God exalted Jesus from a criminal's cross "to the highest place" (Phil 2:9). Jesus could have demanded praise or compliance from us, and could have put us at His disposal (Matt 26:53). Instead, He gave up all power for our sake, winning our worship and devotion. Jesus demonstrated true greatness and power through His absolute humility.

For all honour
And blessing and power
Belongs to You belongs to You
All honour and blessing and power
Belongs to You belongs to You
Lord Jesus Christ
Son of the living God

(From the song by Chris Bowater - Jesus Shall Take the Highest Honour)

Prelude

God Exalted Him (AM)

Words by Linda Lee Johnson based on Phil 2:5-11. Music by Tom Fettke.
Used by permission. CCLI # 346426.

He became a man; Christ became a man
And laid aside the glory He had known,
To be a carpenter, a simple carpenter,
A lowly servant, rejected by His own.

Refrain

But God exalted Him, God has uplifted Him,
And has given Him a name above all names;
That every knee should bow in earth and heav'n above,
And every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord.

He became a man; Christ became a man
Whose destiny was death upon a tree.
Still He became a man, a gentle, loving man,
A man of sorrow, acquainted with grief. (Refrain)

How Deep the Father's Love

Words and Music by Stuart Townend.
Used by permission. CCLI #346426.

How deep the Father's love for us,
How vast beyond all measure,
That He should give His only Son
To make a wretch His treasure.
How great the pain of searing loss,
The Father turns His face away,
As wounds which mar the chosen One,
Bring many sons to glory.

Behold the Man upon a cross,
My sin upon His shoulders;
Ashamed, I hear my mocking voice
Call out among the scoffers.
It was my sin that left Him there
Until it was accomplished;
His dying breath has brought me life -
I know that it is finished.

I will not boast in anything,
No gifts, no power, no wisdom;
But I will boast in Jesus Christ,
His death and resurrection.
Why should I gain from His reward?
I cannot give an answer,
But this I know with all my heart,
His wounds have paid my ransom.

HISTORY OF THE CHURCH

The Orchard Road Presbyterian Church was founded in 1856 to minister to the needs of the Scots community in Singapore. The first church building on the present site was completed in 1878, and has been extended several times, notably in 1975 when the sanctuary was extended and in 1985 when the new extension of the Dunman Hall was completed and a new chapel was built. Alongside the growth of the physical facilities has been the development of the church from an English-speaking expatriate congregation to a local church embracing four different language congregations and a new branch church at Bukit Batok (1995). In addition to the English-speaking congregation, the Indonesian congregation (1976) and the German congregation (1978) now regularly worship and minister as part of Orchard Road Presbyterian Church. In 2005, the Mandarin congregation (1968) became independent as Providence Presbyterian Church but continues to use the buildings for worship and ministry. In 2013, the branch church at Bukit Batok also became independent and is now Bukit Batok Presbyterian Church.

FAITH AND MEMBERSHIP

As a church with our roots in historic Presbyterianism growing out of the Westminster Confession of Faith, we affirm the Lordship of our Saviour, Jesus Christ. We look to the Scriptures as the inspired word of God and the one authoritative and infallible standard for our faith and practice. We welcome those who profess Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour into our formal membership. Our membership is truly international, representing the breadth of God's call upon people from all ethnic and economic backgrounds.

Members are received upon initial profession of faith in Jesus Christ by baptism, confirmation and in transfer from other Christian churches. Classes for baptism, confirmation and for transfer of membership are held periodically and announced in the bulletin.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell, the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the Life everlasting. AMEN

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, for ever and ever. AMEN

DOXOLOGY

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise him, all creatures here below; Praise him above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. AMEN
