My Jesus, I love Thee

My Jesus, I love Thee, I know Thou art mine; For Thee all the follies of sin I resign;
My gracious Redeemer, my Savior art Thou; If ever
I loved Thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.

I love Thee because Thou hast first loved me, And purchased my pardon on Calvary's tree; I love
Thee for wearing the thorns on Thy brow; If ever I loved Thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.

In mansions of glory and endless delight,
I'll ever adore Thee in heaven so bright;
I'll sing with the glittering crown on my brow,
If ever I loved Thee, my Jesus, 'tis now.

Seeing the World through the Lens of Christ

W.W.J.D. Some among us may remember this popular phrase from some time ago. You may even have wristbands or key tags with this tagline lying around somewhere in your home. For those who do not know, W.W.J.D. stands for “What would Jesus do?” It was not uncommon then to hear Christians asking, “What would Jesus do?” It acts as a good reminder for Jesus’ disciples to act in a manner that would demonstrate the love of Christ through our daily actions and speech.

W.W.J.D. is consistent with the Bible’s teaching. As the apostle Paul writes, “I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me” (Gal 2:20). Christ lives in those he had redeemed; the redeemed are to live in imitation of Christ. But before knowing what Jesus will do, we must first be perceiving the world through the lens of Christ.

I wonder often: How did Jesus look at the tax collectors and prostitutes? How did he see Nicodemus and his Pharisee counterparts? How did he feel toward the Samaritan woman at the well? Or the death of Lazarus? Or at the state of creation today? How is he seeing that brother or sister who is going through an extended period of grief and the people around who are feeling helpless about what to do? How is he feeling toward that delinquent youth I’ve just witnessed committing a socially-unacceptable act? What about that socially awkward friend who somehow always offends others with his words?

I am sure Jesus looks at each of them through a hermeneutic of love; he must have seen beyond, of how the complexity of sin and brokenness have caused each to be and act—the consequences of life in a broken world. But he must also have seen beyond, of the possibility of them being made new in him. When we see people through the lens of Christ, we will find ourselves transformed. We begin to know that the person in front of us is already being loved and known by Jesus before we ever meet him. And we will naturally begin to give ourselves in prayer and friendship, not so that we can get something from them, not even to get them to come to our church, but because Christ loves them.

Bible Readings & Prayer Points

Monday

Read Luke 15:11-14. Was there a time when you drifted from God? What was it like?

May God grant our Discipleship Group Leaders wisdom and the ability to guide their group members well.

Tuesday

Read Luke 15:15-18. In the parable, why did the younger son ask for forgiveness from his father? What were our reasons when we first turned to Jesus?

Pray that God will allow the churches in Singapore to grow in the midst of racial and religious harmony in Singapore.

Wednesday

Read Luke 15:19-21. How did God make the first move in reaching out to you?

Pray that our church members will diligently study God's word with the purpose of becoming more like Jesus.

Thursday

Read Luke 15:22-24. What do you think is the extent of God's love for you? And how did you respond?

Give thanks for those serving in the Ushering Ministry. May God's presence be with them as they serve as ushers.

Friday

Read Luke 15:25-30. How is your heart towards God now? Is it grateful or resentful towards Him?

Give thanks for those who are parents of young children. May God continue to give them wisdom, patience and strength as they care for their children.

Saturday

Read Luke 15:31-32. Reflect on your life particularly on how you had been lost and then found by God.

Pray for those who are suffering from work stress. May God continue to care and guide them at the workplace.

MISSION SPOT

Elder Susan Eng (EP Mission and EPJM chairman) is here to share on the 2023 English Presbytery Japan Mission trips. Since 2013, EPJM has partnered with the 3.11 Iwate Church Network and has in recent years gradually expanded to inland locations which were not necessarily directly affected by the disaster. EPJM now also reaches a wider demographic and not just the tsunami victims. For further information, you may approach Elder Susan and her team in Dunman Hall after service or email epjapanmission@yahoo.com

FAITH IS

SoCM Adult Sunday Class

The Gospel - the doctrine of first importance

6 August 2023

11 am - 12.15 pm

Venue: The Chapel

Conducted by Rev. Dr. Clive Chin

The Gospel in terms of Christian Discipleship

An important question among Evangelical churches concern discipleship and its relationship to faith. For Jesus, to follow him in discipleship means total commitment and giving him first place in one's life. That is, one cannot follow Jesus without setting the right priorities in life. Jesus rejects making a distinction between saving faith and discipleship as an optional step.

This talk aims at two learning outcomes.

1. To show how the gospel rightly works out in the massive transformation of attitudes, morals, and relationships.
2. To clarify the relationship between justification and sanctification.

John Calvin insists that justification is by faith alone, but genuine faith is never alone.

HISTORY OF THE CHURCH

The Orchard Road Presbyterian Church was founded in 1856 to minister to the needs of the Scots community in Singapore. The first church building on the present site was completed in 1878, and has been extended several times, notably in 1975 when the sanctuary was extended and in 1985 when the new extension of the Dunman Hall was completed and a new chapel was built. Alongside the growth of the physical facilities has been the development of the church from an English-speaking expatriate congregation to a local church embracing four different language congregations and a new branch church at Bukit Batok (1995). In addition to the English-speaking congregation, the Indonesian congregation (1976) and the German congregation (1978) now regularly worship and minister as part of Orchard Road Presbyterian Church. In 2005, the Mandarin congregation (1968) became independent as Providence Presbyterian Church but continues to use the buildings for worship and ministry. In 2013, the branch church at Bukit Batok also became independent and is now Bukit Batok Presbyterian Church.

FAITH AND MEMBERSHIP

As a church with our roots in historic Presbyterianism growing out of the Westminster Confession of Faith, we affirm the Lordship of our Saviour, Jesus Christ. We look to the Scriptures as the inspired word of God and the one authoritative and infallible standard for our faith and practice. We welcome those who profess Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour into our formal membership. Our membership is truly international, representing the breadth of God's call upon people from all ethnic and economic backgrounds.

Members are received upon initial profession of faith in Jesus Christ by baptism, confirmation and in transfer from other Christian churches. Classes for baptism, confirmation and for transfer of membership are held periodically and announced in the bulletin.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell, the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the Life everlasting. AMEN

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, for ever and ever. AMEN

DOXOLOGY

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise him, all creatures here below; Praise him above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. AMEN
