Anthem (AM)

Ready for the Lord

Words & Music by Jody Brown & Jeff McGaha. Arr by Mary McDonald.
Used by permission. CCLI #346426.

The signs have shown we're near the end
Someday soon He'll come again
Will you meet Him in the air
or bow your head in shame there?
In this world there's so much sin
So many will not trust in Him
But one day He will appear and then to all it will be clear
He is Lord and what glory He will bring
We will bow before the King
What would you have to say
If He should come today
Are you ready for the Lord

He will come to claim His own
He will come to take them home
When the skies are opened wide
Will you be there by my side
Have you lived your life for Him
Or have you lived for self and sin
Have you thrown His love away
Or is your heart where you can say
He is Lord and what glory He will bring
We will bow before the King
What would you have to say
If He should come today
Are you ready for the Lord

Are you ready for the Lord
Please be ready for the Lord

Words and Music by Matt Redman and Jonas Myrin.
Used by permission. CCLI #346426.

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
O my soul, worship His Holy name.
Sing like never before, O my soul.
I'll worship Your Holy name.

You're rich in love and You're slow to anger,
Your name is great and Your heart is kind;
For all Your goodness I will keep on singing,
Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find. (Refrain)

“God is Our Help” Psalm 121

What does it mean that God is our help? You may even ask if God is really in control. Just looking at the world around us will lead many to conclude that it doesn't seem like God is keeping his people from harm. How can we reconcile God's promises to keep us from all harm with the brokenness of our lives? The Psalmist encourages us to lift our eyes above the mountains (i.e., our problems) and look up to God. There we will recognize, as in the book of Revelation, that one day God will wipe away all our tears, destroy all evil, make right all injustice, and our bodies will be raised. That is what is coming. Yes, we have challenges now, but they cannot separate us from the love of Christ (Rom 8:35). This Psalm challenges us to trust in God.

Eugene Peterson summarizes the Psalm in The Message this way: “The promises of this Psalm have always read it this way—not that we shall never face problems, but that no injury or illness, no accident, no distress will have evil power over us that will separate us from God's purposes in us. No literature is more realistic in facing the harsh facts of life than the Bible. At no time is there any suggestion that the life of faith exempts us from difficulty. What it promises is preservation from all the evil in them. The Christian life is going to God. In going to God, Christians travel the same ground that everyone else walks on, breathe the same air, drink the same water, shop in the same stores, are citizens under the same government, subject to the same pressures, get the same distresses, and buried in the same grounds. The difference is that each step we take, each breath we breathe, we know we are preserved by God. We know we are accompanied by God. And therefore, no matter what doubts we endure, or what accidents we experience, the Lord will preserve us from ultimate evil. He will keep our life.”

This Psalm is part of a collection of Psalms called the Songs of Ascent, and was meant to be sung in community, as an encouragement for us to care for one another. The promises proclaimed were passed from one person to another, and from one generation to another, as the Israelites traveled to Jerusalem for their annual festivals. May we do the same for each other.

ON-SITE CLASSIC EE TRAINING – Evangelism Equipping

Evangelism Equipping (EE) course has been developed, tested, evaluated, refined and proven over a period of more than 60 years. Together with training materials, demonstrations, role plays and practice, trainees will find that this course helps them learn and build their skills and confidence to share the good news of Jesus. As evangelism is better caught than taught, EE is not just a program but a way of life. You will be equipped to share the gospel in a natural and non-offensive way anytime, anywhere and to anyone (friends, relatives, associates, neighbours and even strangers).

WHO IS THIS COURSE FOR?

Anyone who is willing to be equipped to share the gospel, and in turn, is able to equip others to do the same.

WHAT DOES THIS COURSE COVER?

1. Understanding the whole truth of the gospel
2. Connecting intentionally with non-believers
3. Sharing the gospel as a lifestyle

HISTORY OF THE CHURCH

The Orchard Road Presbyterian Church was founded in 1856 to minister to the needs of the Scots community in Singapore. The first church building on the present site was completed in 1878, and has been extended several times, notably in 1975 when the sanctuary was extended and in 1985 when the new extension of the Dunman Hall was completed and a new chapel was built. Alongside the growth of the physical facilities has been the development of the church from an English-speaking expatriate congregation to a local church embracing four different language congregations and a new branch church at Bukit Batok (1995). In addition to the English-speaking congregation, the Indonesian congregation (1976) and the German congregation (1978) now regularly worship and minister as part of Orchard Road Presbyterian Church. In 2005, the Mandarin congregation (1968) became independent as Providence Presbyterian Church but continues to use the buildings for worship and ministry. In 2013, the branch church at Bukit Batok also became independent and is now Bukit Batok Presbyterian Church.

FAITH AND MEMBERSHIP

As a church with our roots in historic Presbyterianism growing out of the Westminster Confession of Faith, we affirm the Lordship of our Saviour, Jesus Christ. We look to the Scriptures as the inspired word of God and the one authoritative and infallible standard for our faith and practice. We welcome those who profess Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour into our formal membership. Our membership is truly international, representing the breadth of God's call upon people from all ethnic and economic backgrounds.

Members are received upon initial profession of faith in Jesus Christ by baptism, confirmation and in transfer from other Christian churches. Classes for baptism, confirmation and for transfer of membership are held periodically and announced in the bulletin.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell, the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the Life everlasting. AMEN

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, for ever and ever. AMEN

DOXOLOGY

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise him, all creatures here below; Praise him above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. AMEN
