Speak, O Lord

Words and Music by Keith Getty & Stuart Townend, arr. by John Ferguson.
Used by permission. CCLI #346426.

Speak, O Lord, as we come to You
To receive the food of Your Holy Word.
Take Your truth, plant it deep in us;
Shape and fashion us in Your likeness,
That the light of Christ might be seen today
In our acts of love and our deeds of faith.
Speak, O Lord, and fulfill in us
All Your purposes for Your glory.

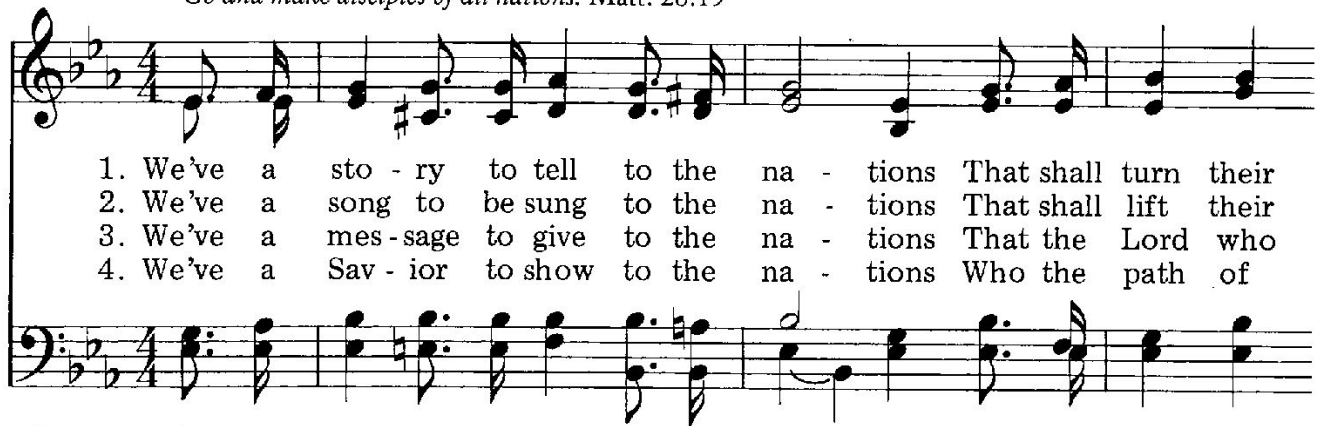

Teach us, Lord, full obedience,
Holy reverence, true humility;
Test our thoughts and our attitudes
In the radiance of Your purity.
Cause our faith to rise; cause our eyes to see
Your majestic love and authority.
Words of pow'r that can never fail—
Let their truth prevail over unbelief.

Speak, O Lord, and renew our minds;
Help us grasp the heights of Your plans for us—
Truths unchanged from the dawn of time
That will echo down through eternity.
And by grace we'll stand on Your promises,
And by faith we'll walk as You walk with us.
Speak, O Lord, till Your church is built
And the earth is filled with Your glory.

Unity from the Inside Out

Which is more important: the self, the immediate community, or the wider community? I suspect when it comes down to it, all of us would have the self as our primary motivation. Each of us is the centre of our own universes, and the immediate and wider communities are only important insofar as they impact the self. This means we live in a world of overlapping universes, each person with their own bubble, each bubble with its own centre of gravity, direction, and momentum. How hard it is to truly be united then!

So how do we solve this problem of disunity? There are two ways to go about this. The first is to line up everyone really close to each other and make sure we are all pointing in the same direction. The result of this will be that our individual bubbles overlap with each other greatly so that from the outside, we look like one entity moving together. But the reality is that we are not one but still many, a collection of more-or-less like-minded individuals moving in the same direction. Somewhat like a fleet of buses moving together from one destination to another, but each bus driver has a different motivation for this journey. So the second way – replace each person's primary motivation so that each of them has the exact same motivation, so now we simply have one big bubble with one centre of gravity, direction, and momentum. And the beauty of this is that then each person helps the bubble move – you have one bus and therefore one bus driver, but you also have someone cleaning the windshield so that the bus driver can see in the correct direction, you have someone else who knows the terrain the bus has to cover and so this person equips the bus with the correct equipment, and so forth. Different things, different tasks, but all with the same destination in mind, with the same motivation, and this motivation has nothing to do with the self but with the whole.

Where am I going with this? Here it is: true unity such as this can only happen when each of us has the mind of Christ (1 Cor 2:16). For it is not just a new heart and a new spirit that Christ has given us (Ezek 36:26) but also his own mind, and it is only when we have the mind of Christ, when we value as he values, love as he loves, think as he thinks, that we are truly united from the inside out and able to work together for his kingdom purposes. So let us put away childish ways (1 Cor 13:11) and instead seek unity as we mature together in the mind of Christ.

Bible Readings & Prayer Points

Monday

Read Acts 2:14-15. What was the purpose for Peter to say, "It's only nine in the morning"?

Thank God for our ORPC's 167th Anniversary. Pray that we will continue to be a witness and service to the world around us.

Tuesday

Read Acts 2:16-21. Why did Peter cite what the prophet Joel had said as recorded in Joel 2:28-32?

Pray for each member of our congregation to seek God's leading and guidance in the understanding of the Alteration & Additions (A&A) project proposal.

Wednesday

Read Acts 2:17-18. What clues are we given here that Pentecost signals the intent of the Great Commission (see Luke 24:48-49)?

Pray for God to guide the hearts and minds of our BoM (Board of Management) Committee members as they meet tonight to discuss our church's management matters.

Thursday

Read Acts 2:17-18. Recognizing its uniqueness, in what ways are the implications of Pentecost experienced by believers today?

Pray for our brothers and sisters who are ill or in grief that God will continue to comfort and strengthen them.

Friday

Read Acts 2:21. Why is it important to emphasize that "everyone" who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved? How would that have been revolutionary for Jewish people to hear?

The suffering and loss of innocent lives in the Israel-Hamas conflict is heartrending. Pray for Christians within the warzone, and in Israel and Palestine, that they will remain steadfast and strong.

Saturday

Read Acts 2:14-21. How have you seen the Holy Spirit show up in your life recently? What was it like? How did you know it was the Holy Spirit?

Give thanks to God for the 8 people who have completed their Membership Class today. Pray that they will continue to grow in their love for and service to our Lord Jesus.

What does it mean to have Faith in Jesus?

How does
God preserve
our faith?

The Gospel: The Call for a Response

The Christian gospel always calls for and expects a response from those who hear it. Thus, Jesus himself preached, "Repent and believe the good news!" (Mark 1:15). Paul declared to everyone to whom he preached, "Turn to God in repentance and have faith in our Lord Jesus" (Acts 20:21). Through faith, sinners receive Jesus' sacrificial death for the forgiveness of our sins. In this session, we will talk about: (1) what it means to have faith in Jesus; (2) how God preserves our faith; and (3) how to persevere in view of personal tragedy and loss.

HISTORY

The Orchard Road Presbyterian Church (ORPC) was founded in 1856 to minister to the needs of the Scots community in Singapore. The first church building on the present site was completed in 1878, and has been extended several times. In 1975, the sanctuary was extended, and in 1985, the new extension of Dunman Hall was completed and a new chapel was built. Alongside the growth of the physical facilities has been the development of the church from an English-speaking expatriate congregation to a local church embracing four different language congregations. In 1995 we planted a branch church (Bukit Batok Presbyterian Church) which became independent in 2013. Similarly, our Mandarin congregation (Providence Presbyterian Church) became independent in 2005. ORPC consists of the English Congregation and the Indonesian Congregation, and worshipping with us now in the same building are Providence Presbyterian Church, and the German-speaking Protestant Congregation in Singapore.

FAITH AND MEMBERSHIP

As a church with roots in historic Presbyterianism growing out of the Westminster Confession of Faith, we affirm the Lordship of our Saviour, Jesus Christ. We look to the Scriptures as the inspired Word of God and the one authoritative and infallible standard for our faith and practice. We welcome those who profess Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour into our formal membership. Our membership is truly international, representing the breadth of God's call upon people from all ethnic and economic backgrounds. Members are received upon initial profession of faith in Jesus Christ by baptism, confirmation, and in transfer from other Christian churches. Classes for baptism, confirmation, and for transfer of membership are held periodically and announced in the bulletin.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the grave. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed by thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen

DOXOLOGY

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.
