We Are Yours, Lord

Words by Don and Nancy Besig. Music by Don Besig.

Used by permission. CCLI #346426.

Conductor: Charly Wen

When we pray, we will pray with thankful hearts.
When we sing, we will sing with joyful voices.
When we serve, we will serve with willing hands
For we are yours, Lord.
We are yours.

When we speak, we will speak with loving care.
When we act, we will act with firm conviction.
When we give, we will give with boundless joy
For we are yours, Lord.
We are yours.

You lift us up, You give us hope.
You fill our lives with the power of Your Spirit.
You give us life, You make us whole,
And we are changed forever through Your love.

Within this calm and peaceful place,
Near to Your heart, O Lord,
We find the joy of saving grace.
Near to Your heart, O Lord,
Your gentle hands will lead us,
Guiding us evermore,
Your tender love will keep us,
Near to Your heart, O Lord.

As we live, we will live in grace and truth.
As we share, we will share with love and kindness.
As we walk, we will walk in humble faith.
For we are yours, Lord.
We are yours.

You lift us up, You give us hope.
You fill our lives with the power of Your Spirit.
You give us life, You make us whole,
And we are changed forever through Your love.

The Privilege of Knowing, Loving, and Trusting God

C.S. Lewis in his book Mere Christianity says, "The whole purpose for which we exist is to be thus taken into the life of God." But how are sinners like us ever able to love and trust God? The answer is found in the Gospel. The Lord Jesus came to earth 2000 years ago so that today, you and I can know God.

The Gospel is the Trinitarian mystery revealed. The Father sent the Son to die and be risen for us. The Son sent the Holy Spirit to indwell and seal us for the final day of our redemption. The Gospel is an invitation by our Triune God into life within the Godhead, where the Father, the Son and the Spirit love one another eternally. We can know this love today because it was manifested among us in Jesus' incarnation. The Father announced at Christ's baptism in Mark 1:11, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased." And Jesus explained to us in John 17:3, "And this is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent."

Jesus' whole earthly life is a manifestation of the Triune God. John 1:18 tells us that no one has ever seen God, only the Son who is from the Father's side has made Him known. Jesus is the eternal Word of God (John 1:1) because He is the complete expression of the Father.

Through Jesus the Son, we can know the Father. When we kneel at our bedside to pray, we are speaking to the Father through the Son by the Holy Spirit through whom we cry out, "Abba Father!" Thus prayer is joining the eternal conversation in the Godhead where the Father said to the Son in Psalm 2:8, "Ask of me, and I will make the nations your heritage, and the ends of the earth your possession." We are now His. Reading not just this Psalm, but the whole Bible now becomes an invitation to overhear the conversation between Him and the Father. And we are invited into this conversation through the Son who says to us in John 16:23, "Whatever you ask of the Father in my name, He will give it to you."

This is the high privilege of coming before the throne of our Father in heaven, through Jesus Christ our Lord. May this realization draw us to Him with an ever-deepening longing, to know and love Him more.

Bible Readings & Prayer Points

Read Exodus 20:18-26

- What was the people's response to God's presence (see also Exodus 19:16-19)? Why did they respond this way?
- How do we know when God is present today? What is our response to God's presence?
- In vv.22-26 God gave instructions on what worshipping Him should look like. What do you think is the significance of this?
- How do we honour God in our worship today?

Prayer Points

- Pray for the Spirit to be with us and pray with us in our Congregational Prayer Meeting this Wednesday.
- Pray for God to help us worship Him in spirit and in truth.
- Pray for the spiritual growth of our Sunday School children. Pray for their learning to be enriching in our weekly Sunday School. Pray that our Sunday School will be able to help them to learn more about the Bible and God, and more importantly, they will come to the point of building a personal relationship with God and receiving Jesus as their personal Saviour in their lives.

The Cross through the Lens of the Psalms

27 – 29 MARCH 2024 | HOLY WEEK CONVENTION 2024

Jesus knew the Psalms; he meditated on them and found solace and strength through his darkest hours.

This Holy Week, we'd like to invite you to reflect on Jesus' Passion by meditating on selected Psalms of Lament. They will teach us how to respond during times of pain and pressure, challenge us to cling on to God even when God seems silent, and show us what suffering well entails as we cling on to the hope of God's ultimate deliverance and Christ's victory on the cross.

As we listen to Jesus sing these Psalms of Lament in his final days, may our hearts be inspired and encouraged.

HISTORY

The Orchard Road Presbyterian Church (ORPC) was founded in 1856 to minister to the needs of the Scots community in Singapore. The first church building on the present site was completed in 1878, and has been extended several times. In 1975, the sanctuary was extended, and in 1985, the new extension of Dunman Hall was completed and a new chapel was built. Alongside the growth of the physical facilities has been the development of the church from an English-speaking expatriate congregation to a local church embracing four different language congregations. In 1995 we planted a branch church (Bukit Batok Presbyterian Church) which became independent in 2013. Similarly, our Mandarin congregation (Providence Presbyterian Church) became independent in 2005. ORPC consists of the English Congregation and the Indonesian Congregation, and worshipping with us now in the same building are Providence Presbyterian Church, and the German-speaking Protestant Congregation in Singapore.

FAITH AND MEMBERSHIP

As a church with roots in historic Presbyterianism growing out of the Westminster Confession of Faith, we affirm the Lordship of our Saviour, Jesus Christ. We look to the Scriptures as the inspired Word of God and the one authoritative and infallible standard for our faith and practice. We welcome those who profess Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour into our formal membership. Our membership is truly international, representing the breadth of God's call upon people from all ethnic and economic backgrounds. Members are received upon initial profession of faith in Jesus Christ by baptism, confirmation, and in transfer from other Christian churches. Classes for baptism, confirmation, and for transfer of membership are held periodically and announced in the bulletin.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the grave. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed by thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen

DOXOLOGY

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.
