SCRIPTURE

Exodus 32:1-10 NIV

¹ When the people saw that Moses was so long in coming down from the mountain, they gathered around Aaron and said, "Come, make us gods who will go before us. As for this fellow Moses who brought us up out of Egypt, we don't know what has happened to him."

² Aaron answered them, "Take off the gold earrings that your wives, your sons and your daughters are wearing, and bring them to me." ³ So all the people took off their earrings and brought them to Aaron. ⁴ He took what they handed him and made it into an idol cast in the shape of a calf, fashioning it with a tool. Then they said, "These are your gods, Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt."

⁵ When Aaron saw this, he built an altar in front of the calf and announced, "Tomorrow there will be a festival to the Lord." ⁶ So the next day the people rose early and sacrificed burnt offerings and presented fellowship offerings. Afterward they sat down to eat and drink and got up to indulge in revelry.

⁷ Then the Lord said to Moses, "Go down, because your people, whom you brought up out of Egypt, have become corrupt. ⁸ They have been quick to turn away from what I commanded them and have made themselves an idol cast in the shape of a calf. They have bowed down to it and sacrificed to it and have said, 'These are your gods, Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt.'

⁹ "I have seen these people," the Lord said to Moses, "and they are a stiff-necked people. ¹⁰ Now leave me alone so that my anger may burn against them and that I may destroy them. Then I will make you into a great nation."

1 Corinthians 10:1-7 NIV

¹ For I do not want you to be ignorant of the fact, brothers and sisters, that our ancestors were all under the cloud and that they all passed through the sea. ² They were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea. ³ They all ate the same spiritual food ⁴ and drank the same spiritual drink; for they drank from the spiritual rock that accompanied them, and that rock was Christ. ⁵ Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them; their bodies were scattered in the wilderness.

⁶ Now these things occurred as examples to keep us from setting our hearts on evil things as they did. ⁷ Do not be idolaters, as some of them were; as it is written: "The people sat down to eat and drink and got up to indulge in revelry."

Our strength by day, our trust by night.

And help us, O Lord, that we may see
Your light and Your love that sets us free.
Lord, make us loving, make us whole.

O Lord, we ask that we may find
Your loving grace in heart and mind.
In Jesus' name we pray, O Lord.

Cultivating Christlike Character

Tim LaHaye in his book, You and Your Family, writes about the family trees of two men who lived in the 18th century. One of them was Jonathan Edwards, the great puritan preacher who shook new England for the Lord Jesus Christ. The other was Max Jukes, a contemporary of Jonathan Edwards. The latter was a godless man who married a godless woman. He had 1026 descendants of whom 300 died prematurely, 100 were sent to prison, 190 were prostitutes, and 100 were known drunks. On the other hand, the former had 729 descendants of whom 300 were preachers, 65 were college professors, 13 were authors, 3 were congressmen, and 1 was vice president of the United States.

From these two family-trees, we can see that the character of an ancestor has a bearing on his descendants. The ancestor is a role model or mentor to his descendants. He shapes their character. If the descendants are guided by an ancestor worthy of emulation, they learn to recognise and imitate his various virtuous dispositions and habits, and emotional and intellectual qualities.

As followers of Jesus Christ, we imitate Him as He is our role model (Ephesians 5:1). God's ultimate concern for us in our life on earth is not that of our comfort but that of our character development. He wants us to grow spiritually and become like Christ (Romans 8:28-29). Christlike character can be cultivated from Biblical truths that penetrate our heart. This is only possible if someone studies the word of God and meditates on it, along with all its meaning and application. It is a proven fact that doctrine (the teaching of God's Word) influences one's character. What someone believes greatly influences his character and actions. If he accepts and follows sound teachings, then those teachings will produce divine character in him—the character of Christ. Paul advised Timothy to “watch yourself and watch your teaching” (1 Timothy 4:6,13,16).

Let us imitate Christ's character so that we will not be a stumbling block in our proclamation of the Gospel and God's name will be glorified.

Bible Readings & Prayer Points

Read Nehemiah 8:1-18

- What can you tell from the people's expressions about their desire to worship God and hear his word? Do you have the same desire or was it once there but now lost? Who can stir your heart and reinstate your first love?
- Why was it important that men, women, and children—"others who could understand"—were in the gathered assembly to worship and hear God's word? How can we do that as a church community?
- Besides the reading of God's word, why was it important that the Levites were also present to instruct the people? How do you see that in our church community? Do you see your need to be taught? And do you think God is calling you to teach others?
- Why did the people's joy come from? From where are you deriving your joy today?

Prayer Points

- Thank God for instating leaders in our church, both newly elected ones and continuing ones. Pray for them and their families as they begin their new terms of service.
- Pray for our church's A&A project. Pray for God's rich provision for our new church buildings and a suitable venue for our use during the move out. Pray also for God to bring the whole church together and strengthen his church through the rebuilding project.
- Give thanks and pray for the parents and young in our church. Pray for God's continued guidance and wisdom for parents in bringing up their children and youths, as well as the larger community in supporting them.

HISTORY

The Orchard Road Presbyterian Church (ORPC) was founded in 1856 to minister to the needs of the Scots community in Singapore. The first church building on the present site was completed in 1878, and has been extended several times. In 1975, the sanctuary was extended, and in 1985, the new extension of Dunman Hall was completed and a new chapel was built. Alongside the growth of the physical facilities has been the development of the church from an English-speaking expatriate congregation to a local church embracing four different language congregations. In 1995 we planted a branch church (Bukit Batok Presbyterian Church) which became independent in 2013. Similarly, our Mandarin congregation (Providence Presbyterian Church) became independent in 2005. ORPC consists of the English Congregation and the Indonesian Congregation, and worshipping with us now in the same building are Providence Presbyterian Church, and the German-speaking Protestant Congregation in Singapore.

FAITH AND MEMBERSHIP

As a church with roots in historic Presbyterianism growing out of the Westminster Confession of Faith, we affirm the Lordship of our Saviour, Jesus Christ. We look to the Scriptures as the inspired Word of God and the one authoritative and infallible standard for our faith and practice. We welcome those who profess Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour into our formal membership. Our membership is truly international, representing the breadth of God's call upon people from all ethnic and economic backgrounds. Members are received upon initial profession of faith in Jesus Christ by baptism, confirmation, and in transfer from other Christian churches. Classes for baptism, confirmation, and for transfer of membership are held periodically and announced in the bulletin.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the grave. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen

DOXOLOGY

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.
