SCRIPTURE

Philippians 2:12-30

¹² Therefore, my dear friends, as you have always obeyed—not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence—continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling, ¹³ for it is God who works in you to will and to act in order to fulfill his good purpose.

¹⁴ Do everything without grumbling or arguing, ¹⁵ so that you may become blameless and pure, “children of God without fault in a warped and crooked generation.” Then you will shine among them like stars in the sky ¹⁶ as you hold firmly to the word of life. And then I will be able to boast on the day of Christ that I did not run or labor in vain. ¹⁷ But even if I am being poured out like a drink offering on the sacrifice and service coming from your faith, I am glad and rejoice with all of you. ¹⁸ So you too should be glad and rejoice with me.

¹⁹ I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be cheered when I receive news about you. ²⁰ I have no one else like him, who will show genuine concern for your welfare. ²¹ For everyone looks out for their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ. ²² But you know that Timothy has proved himself, because as a son with his father he has served with me in the work of the gospel. ²³ I hope, therefore, to send him as soon as I see how things go with me. ²⁴ And I am confident in the Lord that I myself will come soon.

²⁵ But I think it is necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother, co-worker and fellow soldier, who is also your messenger, whom you sent to take care of my needs. ²⁶ For he longs for all of you and is distressed because you heard he was ill. ²⁷ Indeed he was ill, and almost died. But God had mercy on him, and not on him only but also on me, to spare me sorrow upon sorrow. ²⁸ Therefore I am all the more eager to send him, so that when you see him again you may be glad and I may have less anxiety. ²⁹ So then, welcome him in the Lord with great joy, and honor people like him, ³⁰ because he almost died for the work of Christ. He risked his life to make up for the help you yourselves could not give me.

Anthem

The Majesty and Glory of Your Name

Based on Psalm 8. Music by Tom Fettke.

Used by permission. CCLI #346426.

When I gaze into the night skies
and see the work of Your fingers
The moon and stars suspended in space
O what is man that You are mindful of him

You have given man a crown of glory and honour
And have made him a little lower than the angels
You have put him in charge of all creation
The beasts of the fields, the birds of the air, the fish of the sea

But what is man?
Oh, what is man that You are mindful of him

O Lord our God the majesty and glory of Your name
Transcends the earth and fills the heaven

O Lord our God little children praise you perfectly
And so would we and so would we

Alleluia Alleluia
The majesty and glory of Your name
Alleluia!

Can I be a disciple-maker if I'm not gifted in teaching?

Before Jesus' ascension, he gave the Church the Great Commission. Since then, generations after generations of Jesus' disciples have poured their lives into discipling others. We, the current generation, are likewise called to disciple men and women; it is the priority around which our lives should be lived.

Disciple-making is often associated with teaching, but this perception can be misleading. Many Christians feel intimidated by the idea of instructing others about faith, fearing they lack the necessary skills or knowledge. However, disciple-making isn't just about teaching; it encompasses a broader range of relationships and experiences.

At its core, disciple-making is about forming deep and transformative relationships centred around following Jesus. It involves guiding others to faith, guiding them to grow in faith, and living out one's faith authentically. While teaching is one way of disciple-making, it is far from the only one. Disciple-makers can be found in various roles and styles, each with its unique contribution to the body of Christ.

For the growth of the church, God has given us different spiritual gifts (Rom. 12; 1 Cor. 12). Not everyone is called to teach, and that's perfectly okay. A disciple-maker who is gifted in teaching is as important as another who excels in hospitality or service or evangelism. For instance, a Christian who provides a listening ear and support during difficult times can be just as impactful as one who teaches. Both can be used by God to lead others to spiritual growth and transformation.

Living out your faith authentically can also have a powerful influence on those around you. When you embody the teachings of Jesus in your daily life, you become others' faith model. Your love for God and others, patience, and perseverance can inspire others to pursue a deeper relationship with God, even if you aren't gifted in teaching.

Moreover, disciple-making happens within the context of community. Engaging in discipleship groups, gatherings, and fellowships provides opportunities to share faith stories organically. These interactions can be profoundly rich and meaningful, enabling individuals to disciple one another in ways that cannot be taught.

You can absolutely be a disciple-maker without being gifted in teaching. Be cognisant of your God-given personality and gifts, whether they are in listening, serving, or simply being present with others. The journey of disciple-making is about reflecting Christ's love in the everyday interactions of relationships. Remember, the essence of disciple-making lies in relationship, not just instruction. So, go and fulfil the Great Commission in ways that are uniquely you!

Read Philippians 3:1-11

- What does it mean to “put no confidence in the flesh”? Why do you think Paul give himself as an example of this?
- Look at Paul’s credentials. What “gains” was he deriving from them? Why does he now consider them loss?
- What is the difference between righteousness that comes from following the law and righteousness that comes from God?

Prayer Points

- Pray for our YA Camp of 2-4 January in Johor Bahru.
 - Pray that many of our YAs will join this camp.
 - Pray for Pr Lionel Neo (Covenant Presbyterian Church) in his preparation of his message.
 - Pray for good health for all the campers.
 - Above all, pray that through this camp, our YAs will be renewed and refreshed to serve God wherever they are and in whatever they do.
- Pray for God's guidance and wisdom to come up with a structured plan for evangelism which can exploit our new temporary church location as we look forward to the move to Suntec City next year.
- When it comes to journeying with young people, pray for the grace to listen well, refrain from judgement and provide a nurturing space where they can express themselves honestly and process the many questions they face every day.

IS THE END NEAR?

Is the End Near?

Revelation's Guide to the Present & Future

Recent global crises – natural disasters, wars and threats of war, and geopolitical instability – have sparked the age-old question: is the world coming to the end? Our next two classes will address this question in two parts.

First, we shall examine the Book of Revelation to uncover its central message. That, despite everything that is going amiss with our world, God remains in control. The Book of Revelation offers us a heavenly perspective on our history, present and future. Reading John's letter with our final hope in mind helps Christians to transform the present and encourages us to remain faithful to the end.

The second part focuses on the various approaches to interpreting the Book of Revelation, whether the events described are past, future or true of all times. We shall also discuss how Christian interpreters have disagreed on the nature and timing of Christ's one thousand-year reign on earth relative to His second coming. The Premillennial, Postmillennial and Amillennial views will be presented and evaluated.

PLEDGE FORM

for the ORPC Building Alterations and Additions (A&A) Project Fund, launched in May 2024

What is a pledge?

A pledge is a confidential, written promise to give money (whether a one-off sum or installments over a period of time) to the A&A project fund in the future. It is a commitment made in faith in accordance with the resources that God has given us. A pledge is not a legally binding contract, and can be reviewed and changed as circumstances evolve.

Why pledge?

Your pledge enables the A&A committee to plan its finances for the A&A project fund effectively, and to determine the financial commitment we are able to undertake for the entire rebuilding works ahead of time. We hope that through pledging, congregation members will build a culture of giving to the project based on our pre-committed goals.

I/We pledge our support for the A&A Project Fund of Orchard Road Presbyterian Church (ORPC)

HISTORY

The Orchard Road Presbyterian Church (ORPC) was founded in 1856 to minister to the needs of the Scots community in Singapore. The first church building on the present site was completed in 1878, and has been extended several times. In 1975, the sanctuary was extended, and in 1985, the new extension of Dunman Hall was completed and a new chapel was built. Alongside the growth of the physical facilities has been the development of the church from an English-speaking expatriate congregation to a local church embracing four different language congregations. In 1995 we planted a branch church (Bukit Batok Presbyterian Church) which became independent in 2013. Similarly, our Mandarin congregation (Providence Presbyterian Church) became independent in 2005. ORPC consists of the English Congregation and the Indonesian Congregation, and worshipping with us now in the same building are Providence Presbyterian Church, and the German-speaking Protestant Congregation in Singapore.

FAITH AND MEMBERSHIP

As a church with roots in historic Presbyterianism growing out of the Westminster Confession of Faith, we affirm the Lordship of our Saviour, Jesus Christ. We look to the Scriptures as the inspired Word of God and the one authoritative and infallible standard for our faith and practice. We welcome those who profess Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour into our formal membership. Our membership is truly international, representing the breadth of God's call upon people from all ethnic and economic backgrounds. Members are received upon initial profession of faith in Jesus Christ by baptism, confirmation, and in transfer from other Christian churches. Classes for baptism, confirmation, and for transfer of membership are held periodically and announced in the bulletin.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the grave. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen

DOXOLOGY

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.
