Attending which service? Morning/Evening

In a Presbyterian Church, only believing Christian parents may present their child for Baptism. Infant Baptism is a sign of God's faithfulness to us. It is not a sign of saving faith on the part of the child. Each child must come to his or her own decision of faith in Jesus Christ in order to be a true Christian.

In a Presbyterian Church, we do not use "God-parents"; the congregation fulfils that role. You are encouraged, however, to invite your friends and relatives to be with us at the Worship Service for this special occasion.

Have the child's parents attended ORPC's Biblical Parenting Class (a prerequisite)?

Father: Yes / No. Mother: Yes / No. If yes, state year & month attended _____
